This is an opportunity for citizens to address the Council on any matter that is not posted on this agenda. The Council is not permitted to take action on, or discuss any presentations made to the Council at this time concerning any item not listed on this agenda.

Zachrey Stokes said it's time to address the domestic violence by our elected officials. He said most of the victims of this abuse don't feel they can report domestic abuse so they get away with it why because these abusers get away with it why because people sweep it under the rug.

Mayor Hunter said he wanted to stop him right there and asked if he held up a newspaper article at the last meeting on this.

Zachrey Stokes said no and this was something totally different.

Mayor Hunter said he held up a newspaper article.

Zachrey Stokes said excuse me.

Mayor Hunter said thank you and sit down.

Zachrey Stokes said to have him put out.

Mayor Hunter told him to leave.

Zachrey Stokes said to have him put out. He said he wasn't supposed to interrupt.

Mayor Hunter said if it's in the newspaper how it is sweep under the rug,

Zachrey Stokes said coward.

Mayor Hunter said thank you.

Zachrey Stokes said you're welcome. He said coward.

Mayor Hunter said the newspaper reported it. He said he was not hiding anything.

Zachrey Stokes said he's hiding, a lot.

Mayor Hunter said what he is hiding.

Zachrey Stokes said he was hiding an animal.

Mayor Hunter asked if he could speak without calling people names.

Zachrey Stokes said not that animal – no.

Mayor Hunter said he was done – thank you. Zachrey Stokes came back in and sat down. Mayor Hunter said Mr. Stokes I asked you to leave. Thank you.

Pat Deen said he is right now the Mayor of Hudson Oaks for twelve (12) years and he is running for County Judge. He said it's time to put Reno on the map. He said he has knocked on 60 -70 doors. He said with the endorsement of our County Commissioner George Conley they will work together and increase the budget on the rural roads. He said he wants to do two (2) things – make sure response time are as low as they can possibly be working with the Sheriff's Department and increase their budget to make sure they have the funds to work on the roads. He said he has not seen his opponent at here at all. He said he was not here just to get their vote. He said he respectfully asked for their vote. Thank you.

Randy Martin addressed a couple of things on the agenda. He said Item C. on the impound lot to check into it to see what it's going to cost the city. He said the other things is Item I – on aerobic systems. He said people won't take care of their systems. He said four (4) hours of training is not enough training. He said on Item J. it cities should look at TML.

Ray Jones said he here two (2) years ago when he was running for the office of Constable Precinct 1. He said Commission Court appointed him as Interim Constable when the current Constable stepped down and resigned. He said he is the current Constable until December 31st. He said hopefully we will see his name on the November ballot. But he wanted them to know his office was open.

Meredith Perry-Hull spoke about Domestic Violence and having a Safe House in the area.

C. Police Department Report

Chief Holzschuh said they made a traffic stop on a suspected narcotics dealer and arrested her for driving while license suspended. She will be charged with meth once the crime lab confirms it. The very next stop we arrested two (2) men on warrants and while transporting them, discovered 6.5 g of meth, Ecstasy and a number of illegally possessed medications, packaged for individual sale. We ended up filing six (6) felonies and two misdemeanors. He said on Saturday morning, he spent the day with the Azle Police Department assisting with their warrant round up. During an arrest, he interviewed a young lady about a burglary that had occurred on East Reno. She positively identified my suspect, provided a statement, and has given permission for me to enter her travel trailer to recover the stolen goods. She also provided invaluable information about sale of narcotics in this area. He said he was notified by the City of Azle that some of the information she provided during his consensual talk with her may be used to in the investigation of an aggravated assault. Officer's subsequently identified the suspect as being one of our local offenders and determined through fingerprint analysis that he was indeed a wanted felon who had lied to our officers about his name. He said he will be filing a warrant on this individual for Failing to identify, Fugitive, tomorrow when he goes back.
